

Wyatt Family Summer Fellowship for Distinguished Majors in Spanish

Call for Applications for 2023 Graduates

The Department of Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese invites applications for the Wyatt Family Summer Fellowship for Distinguished Majors in Spanish. This fellowship provides support up to $4,000 for Distinguished Majors in Spanish to conduct research in a Spanish-speaking country during the summer between their third and fourth years. The funds may be used for field research, archival research, interviews, museum study, or other activities related to the student's proposed thesis topic.

Fellowship applications should include a 500-700 word description of the project, a budget of estimated expenses, and a letter of support from the faculty member who will serve as the thesis adviser. The student should indicate whether he/she is applying for funds from other sources.

The fellowship application should be submitted, along with the application to the Distinguished Majors Program, by Friday, February 11, 2022.
